Public Comment, general – This public comment will not include any matters on the agenda where the committee is making a formal recommendation to the Town Council. Each person will have a maximum of three minutes unless the Chair determines that a shorter or longer time is appropriate due to the number of people wishing to speak.

Public comment specific to recommendations to the Town Council – For matters on the agenda where the committee makes a formal recommendation to the Town Council a three-minute comment period for each person will be allowed prior to a vote.

It is encouraged that persons wishing to address LMAC do so in writing prior to a meeting so that the committee members may review the information and the Chair can add it the agenda as appropriate or be prepared to address the communication. General open space management issues are best communicated to the staff. Email is openspace@falmouthme.org.
