EXPLORE WAYS TO MAKE YOUR COMMUNITY A BETTER PLACE

DID YOU KNOW?
Studies have shown that volunteering has a positive effect on both mental and physical health. People who donate their time feel more socially connected, thus warding off loneliness and depression, and are also rewarded with improved physical health!

“Alone we can do so little; together we can do so much.” — Helen Keller

IMPROVE YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD BY ORGANIZING A LOCAL, COMMUNITY ACTIVITY—

- Plan social gatherings; cookouts, game night, kickball or other fun activities.
- Organize a neighborhood yard sale.
- Think up a beautification effort in or around your area of town and get neighbors involved to get it done.
- Start a book club.
- Have a fair for the neighborhood kids, with games, prizes and snacks.
- Organize a neighborhood walk or exercise program.
